

Head Coach CSUN Water Polo Club

Description:

Instruct and lead the California State University, Northridge Water Polo Club (Co-ed team) through competitive practices, games and tournaments.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Work with current coaching staff to ensure a positive and competitive environment.
- Assist the club leadership to ensure the team is meeting all responsibilities.
- Lead, organize, and coordinate water polo club practices and workouts during the week as well as tournaments over select weekends
- Recruit new and retain veteran water polo club members throughout each semester.
- Evaluate individual and team performance and make adjustments as needed.
- Follow district policies, site procedures, CWPA rules and the CWPA Coaches Code of Ethics.
- Foster training in conduct, ethics and sportsmanship for all participants and coaches.
- Supervision of the team before, during, and after practices, games and other team events including road games.
- Instill a disciplined and team oriented mindset.

Qualifications

- High school diploma or GED equivalent
- Have a valid USA Water Polo Coaching Membership
- Previous water polo playing experience required throughout High School and College - Club or NCAA
- Minimum of two years of experience coaching water polo - Club, High School, or Collegiate level teaching experience
- Ability to coach to both male and female athletes.
- Knowledge of the fundamental skills and techniques, as well as the advanced techniques of water polo.
- Ability to teach, enforce, advocate and model appropriate behavior, character traits and educational values to students-athletes.

Compensation

Coaches are paid as independent contractors. Rate is: $500-$1,000 per semester . The club will cover travel and meal costs during tournaments and other team events. The club will cover parking fees at CSUN.

Interested parties should email JP Gale, Sport Club Manager at jp.gale@csun.edu